

The Journalism Diversity Fund celebratory event

Date:	Thursday, 20 September 2018
Time:	09:30 – 14:30
Location:	Bloomberg L.P., 3 Queen Victoria Street, London, EC4N 4TQ
09:30	Refreshments
10:00	Host address Matthew A. Winkler, editor-in-chief emeritus, Bloomberg News Welcome from the chair Abu Bundu-Kamara, NCTJ trustee The culture of inclusion Pamela Hutchinson, head of diversity and inclusion, EMEA, Bloomberg LP Tunde Ogungbesan, head of diversity, inclusion and succession, BBC Hayley Pearce, reporter, The Argus and previous JDF recipient Mark Rice-Oxley, head of special projects, The Guardian Recruitment, fair access and retention Pamela Hall, HR business partner, Sky Entertainment Amar Mehta, news reporter, Newsquest and previous JDF recipient Abbie Scott, deputy managing editor, Financial Times Charlene White, newsroom anchor, ITN
11:45	Comfort break
12:00	Fireside talk: The importance of raising your voice to influence change Jacqueline Simmons, executive editor, Global Business, Bloomberg News Gina Miller, co-founder, SCM Direct
13:00	Celebratory buffet lunch reception & networking
14.00	Afternoon address Abu Bundu-Kamara, NCTJ trustee
14:05	Recipient address Rianna Croxford, trainee broadcast journalist, BBC World Service and BBC Radio 4 Connor Parker, intern reporter, HuffPost UK Lead sponsor cheque presentation and vote of thanks Neil O'Brien, commercial director of NLA media access, to present a cheque for £100,000 to Kim Fletcher, chairman of the NCTJ Presentations of the Claire Prosser and Thomas Read bursaries Closing address Abu Bundu-Kamara, NCTJ trustee
14:30	Event finish